3.26 Major Activities during the year in the sphere of extension activities and Institutional Social Responsibility

- The college collaborated with MARG (Movement for Amity towards road accidents in Goa) to form the Citizenship and Civic Sense club ‘Ravindra Kelekar Civic Club’ on 25th August 2015 with 30 students enrolling in the club. Student members of the club conducted a survey on road safety especially for drivers, riders and pedestrians at the Pilar four cross junction. A report was prepared and given to the authorities; and the college was assured that precautionary measures to avoid accidents at the junction will be taken in the soon.

- As part of the health extension initiative to neighbourhood, two trained nurses have been engaged (with management initiative) to visit the elderly and needy people from in and around the college on every Monday and Tuesday to check for Hypertensive or Diabetic problems.
- On 15th September 2015, the Outreach Committee in collaboration with MARG organized a session on the need for savings habit and financial independence for the students and members of the citizenship and civic club. The importance of savings, banking practices, and also asserted the need for students to take charge of their finances from a young age itself.
- Along with the Solidarity Forum of the Mission Seminary, Pilar, the college organized an inter-faith dialogue program titled: ‘Let’s unite for a better tomorrow’ at 4 institutions- SFX Higher Secondary, Siolim; CES College, Cuncolim; Nirmala Institute of Education, Panaji and GVM College, Ponda from July to October 2015. Methodology involved reading of sacred texts from all religions, play on communal harmony, mime dance and inspiring videos on religious harmony.
- The College partnered with Indian Catholic Youth Movements’ 40th National Council for the organization of cultural events. Student group also performed a traditional Goa/Portuguese Corridinho dance for the cultural evening of the 40th National Council held in Goa.
- Under environment-friendly activity of discouraging use of plastic bags for shopping etc. the students of the NSS Unit were engaged in creative cloth bags making activity-making bags out of used cloth pieces. Nearly 200 volunteers participated in the activity. Under this activity an awareness campaign was also launched by the volunteers to educate the local neighbourhood regarding the hazards of using plastic bags in particular and the impact of plastics in general on the environment. A special pledge was taken by the volunteers to use these cloth bags. More than 3000 cloth bags were made under this activity.
- Under Swach Bharat campaign, the volunteers of the NSS Unit under took paper shredding activity- collecting all the used paper from the college as well as from their houses and the locality. After the collection, the paper was then shredded in the college shredding machine and sent for recycling. This environment-friendly activity was a major success. More than 80 kgs of paper was collected and sent for recycling.

- The NSS Unit Volunteers collected old newspapers from the college as well as from their houses and the locality to make Paper Bags using old newspapers. These were then distributed in the neighbouring villages to pharmacies and general stores. Under this activity more than 9000 paper bags were made and distributed.
- Under Swach Bharat campaign, the Unit also undertook a plastic bottle collection drive. More than 70,000 plastic bottles were collected. Apart from this activity students also collected waste plastic of around 160 kg. Collected waste was then sent for recycling.
- In a bid to update the electoral roll, the NSS Unit of the College in association with the Election Commission of India (Zonal Office), identified students who have completed 18 years of age and these were then guided in the process of registering their names in the electoral roll. The Unit went a step ahead and conducted a survey in and around the volunteers' residential houses, they identified youth who have not registered their names and these were assisted. The Unit submitted more than 100 forms to the election commission of several constituencies. Mr. Jayesh A. Raut, NSS Programme Officer of the college was also appointed as the nodal officer of 14th St. Andre constituency. This project is a continuous project and the college will collaborate with the election commission authorities on a regular basis.
- As part of the NSS special camp conducted at Miracles High school Sanguem, Goa. 130 volunteers conducted cleanliness drive of the area surrounding the school. Awareness campaigns through door to door visits and street plays were conducted on various issues impacting the local community.
- The NSS unit of the College has been actively involved in using street plays as a powerful medium of communication. Street plays were conducted in and around St. Andre constituency where the college is situated and across Goa. More than 60 volunteers participated in this unique medium to create awareness and sensitize citizens on various socio-politico-economic issues affecting the state/local community/nation; as well as to build values including national values. The Street Plays based on different themes are given below:
 - Good values in youth (12/09/15)
 - Swachh Bharat (14th Dec, 23rd Jan, 1st, 5th, 6th, 8th, 18th, 24th Feb., 1st March)

- As part of creating computer awareness among the community especially senior citizens, the BCA Dept. of the College along with Our Lady of Desterro Church, Vasco da Gama, successfully conducted a month's course titled: 'Foundation Course in Computer Awareness' from July to August 2015 at Desterro, Vasco da Gama. Twenty people of different age groups from the area participated and successfully completed the course.

Adaption of new methods to teaching learning process:

Various provisions to enhance the teaching learning process:

- Equipping the teachers with (laptops, internet connectivity, interactive boards) and creating necessary infrastructure such as multimedia classrooms, e-resources etc.
- The use of web resources for supplementing classroom study, assignments, evaluation etc.
- Programs for advanced and slow learners.

Appreciation day:

Appreciation awards for students who bring laurels to the institution in the area of academics, sports and extra-circular activities.

Prayer Service:

Daily Prayer service for students has been introduced through public address system. 5 minutes during the first lecture is set aside for prayer which is conducted by the students along with mentor teacher. In addition, weekly two days are set aside for staff prayer for which a staff member is assigned to organise and conduct the prayer. It has been a tradition in the college to start any event with a prayer service. The college emphasizes on promoting communal harmony and a healthy and conducive environment. Inter-faith dialogue and events are encouraged.

Earn while you learn:

The college provides employment to deserving needy students. The students work after their lectures in library and IGNOU study centre Pilar. Some are working in International Centre, Dona Paula.

Keeping students abreast with the current news:

The local newspaper The Goan, is provided in each classroom and the teachers discuss the reports in their respective subjects and it related areas. In addition, the library subscribes to 12 local newspapers and national newspapers.

Peer Teaching:

Peer teaching is conducted through fast learners, where one student explains the given topic to the other students. This helps in building teaching skills for the student and the ease in learning for the other students.

Monthly Bulletin:

Since 2007, the college publishes a monthly bulletin called “Happenings”. It reflects and reports on the various activities, events, students and staff achievements, student and staff participations, write-ups on certain issues, experiences etc. It is circulated among the staff, students and other stakeholders through email.

Library Bulletin:

The library bulletin “Full Circle” publishes the various activities and events which are conducted by the Department of Library and Information Science.

Faculty development programmes:

The college conducts faculty development programmes for teaching and non teaching staff.

Mentoring:

Each first year class is assigned two faculty members who act as class mentors and remain with the students of the same class till they graduate.

Inculcating saving habits:

The neighbouring banks encourage the students to open savings account in the bank with zero balance. On 15th September 2015, the Outreach Committee in collaboration with MARG organized a session on the need for savings habit and financial independence for the students and members of the citizenship and civic club. The importance of savings, banking practices, and also asserted the need for students to take charge of their finances from a young age itself.

7.3 Give two Best Practices of the institution

Prayer Service:

Objective:

- To build religious tolerance.
 - To respect the other religions and its belief.
 - To build a healthy relationship among staff and students.
- Weekly two days are set aside for staff prayer for which a staff member is assigned to organise and conduct the prayer. The staff member has the flexibility in designing the execution of prayer service- it includes a moral value (wherein the reflection is represented with the help of stories, poems, audio pieces etc.). Prayer for staff birthday is also done followed by birthday song, wishing etc.
 - Daily Prayer is also conducted for students in class for 5 minutes during the first lecture through public address system. Staff join these prayers in classroom/staffroom/work places.
 - It is a hallmark of our college to begin every event with a prayer service. For the prayer services, quotations/reading is taken from different religious books, audio visual presentations which reflect a message of a theme.
 - Value education and Inter-faith cell conducts various competitions, field trips, talks etc. which promotes communal harmony.

Appreciation Awards:

Objective:

- To boost the morale of students for their hard work.
- To encourage the students to continue in participating in various activities.

Every year, the college has marked a day called as “Appreciation Day”, preferably conducted on 14th February. The students are awarded for their outstanding performance and participation at various inter-collegiate, state, national and international level event in co-circular and extra circular events (Sports, NCC, NSS, Cultural Events etc.)
